

Exceptions to TSGLI Coverage

There are certain circumstances under which a traumatic injury would not be covered by TSGLI. They are:

- For retroactive only: Any injury that did not occur from 7 October 2001 through 30 November 2005 or any injury not incurred while under orders in a tax-exempt combat zone.
- An injury incurred while attempting suicide, whether the Soldier is sane or insane.
- Intentionally self-inflicted injury or any attempt to inflict such injury.
- An injury incurred due to Medical or surgical treatment of an illness whether the loss results directly or indirectly from that treatment.
- An injury incurred while under the influence of an illegal or controlled substance unless administered or consumed on the advice of a doctor.
- An injury incurred while committing or attempting to commit a felony.
